

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

HOW EUROPE WORKS: A FIRST-HAND PERSPECTIVE ON EUROPEAN INSTITUTIONS (MOROCCO)

We are pleased to inform you that the Robert Schuman Institute (RSI), with the support of the Eduardo Frei Foundation, organises an introductory seminar (29 – 31 October 2021, Casablanca, Morocco) under the title “How Europe Works: A First-Hand Perspective on EU Institutions”. The event will be provided for 20 people with relevant duties / functions in the EPP partner ISTIQLAL and RNI parties in Morocco.

Aims of the project:

- To support the EU-oriented work of EPP sister parties in EU partner countries by capacity building
- To familiarize participants with the fundamental values of the EPP as expressed in the party platform, including their consequences and implications for particular policies
- To introduce trainees to the EPP family, its network in Brussels and beyond
- To provide practical and ready-to-use knowledge on the development, structure and functions of the European Union and its institutions via interactive presentations, as well as practical and realistic information on EU partnership criteria
- To give participants first-hand information and good insight into the everyday life of the EU institutions via on-site visits within the framework of the field trip to Brussels (e.g. European Parliament, EU Commission, EU Council, Committee of the Regions)

- To strengthen ties and further develop a cross-border professional network involving young people from Morocco
